Firemen and friends rush to save the belongings of the James Webb family as fire swept through a bedroom and kitchen of their frame home on E. Confederate Blvd., Appomattox, Monday afternoon. Firemen kept the blaze confined to two rooms, but smoke and water damage was heavy. Almost all of little Denise Webb's clothing, plus furniture, was destroyed.

Fire Damages Home—Clothes, Furniture At Webb Home Monday

A two year old girl, Denise Webb, lost most of her belongings Monday in a firs which damaged the home of James M. Webbs and burned several items of furniture. The house, owned by Mrs. Ruth Wheeler, and located on E. Confederate Blvd. was heavily damaged by fire, smoke, and water. Two rooms of the four - room dwelling were burned, the little girl's bedroom and the kitchen. Firemen said the fire seemed to have started in the flue near the floor in the baby's bedroom.

Mrs. Ruth Wheeler, owner of the house, first noticed smoke about 2:45 p.m. and notified firemen. She entered the house to see if the Webbs were at home, only to be met by a wall of smoke and flame as she opened the baby's bedroom door.

No one was at home. Webb, an employee of Appomattox Garment Co. in Lynchburg, was at work, and Mrs. Webb, along with her daughter were at the home of her mother, Mrs. Enid Phelps a short distance away.

Webb said that all of the little girl's clothing was lost, plus a new vacuum cleaner, kitchen furniture, baby bed, and other items.

Mrs. Wheeler said that at least the kitchen and bedroom would have to be rebuilt, and the entire house rewired.

Offset Press Prints Original Christmas Cards

At least two original sketches were reprinted on the TIMES-VIRGINIAN offset press this holiday season to add a unique appearance to Christmas cards. One was the work of Frank Thomas.

One of Appomattox' artists used his talents to reproduce Christmas cards this year in a way new to this area. Frank Thomas, 1963 graduate of Appomattox High School, drew a sketch of the McLean House in the snow, then had it reproduced by the TIMES-VIRGINIAN offset press with appropriate message for the Christmas season. Such reproductions can be done swiftly and effectively by the offset press for other occasions, too- programs, invitations, anniversaries, etc.

More than 10 times as many people died in the nation's traffic last year than were lost at Pearl Harbor. Don't be a peacetime casualty.
